

Discover Nipaluna

A guide to Aboriginal experiences around nipaluna /Hobart

Developed by Blak Led Tours Tasmania, this itinerary aims to present unique opportunities that allow you to experience Tasmanian Aboriginal history and culture.

We've highlighted five diverse activities for learning and connection within the greater Hobart area. These experiences are suitable and engaging for locals and visitors alike.

1. takara nipaluna/ walking Hobart

Guided walking tour
Delivered by Blak Led Tours Tasmania
Hobart CBD

About:

Created by award-winning palawa and Warlpiri woman Nunami Sculthorpe-Green, The walk follows the route taken in 1832 by members of the Aboriginal resistance, retracing their steps as they progressed to the old Government House to negotiate an end to the Black War. As the only Aboriginal-led tour of nipaluna/Hobart, this is a must-do experience.

This is a historical story-telling tour that combines the history of lutruwita Tasmania with a style of presentation and storytelling like no other on the market. Initially developed through a performing arts lens and first presented through Ten Days on the Island Festival, truly unlike any other on the market.

Getting there:

Tours start at Mathers Place (108-110 Bathurst St) and finish at parliament lawns at Salamanca precinct. Tours run for 90 minutes and are wheelchair and pram accessible. Tickets start at $60. There is also a self-guided version experience available via the Blak Led Tours App.

2. kipli takara: Bush foods walk

Guided walk delivered by palawa kipli (Tasmanian Aboriginal catering company)
piyura kitina / Risdon Cove

About:

kipli takara piyura kitina-ta (bush foods walk at Risdon Cove).

kipli takara is a 90-minute bush tucker tour offered on Aboriginal land at piyura kitina/Risdon cove.

This tour invites guests to walk the culturally rich landscape with palawa (Tasmanian Aboriginal) guides across this abundant natural pantry that has been returned to Tasmanian Aboriginal ownership since 1995.

Throughout this experience guests are treated to a 90-minute guided walk of this unique property, hearing about the history and current story of the area.

Following the walk guests enjoy catering provided by Palawa Kipli from their on-site commercial kitchen.

Location:

Tours take place on Aboriginal land on Hobart's Eastern Shore. The address for piyura kitina is 838 East Derwent Highway

3. takara limuna / She Oak Walk

Free walking trail of interpretation and sculpture trail commissioned by Clarence City Bedlam Walls / Shag Bay Eastern Shore

takara limuna is a trail of artwork and interpretation panels, featuring Aboriginal history and connection to the landscape.

The track is accessed via the Shag Bay Track and set across 700 metres along the headland of Bedlam Walls and features a viewing platform, a central fire pit and gathering circle.

The panels all feature the information in palawa kani (Tasmanian Aboriginal language) as well as English and include QR codes which link to audio recordings in palawa kani so that track users can listen to the interpretation in a Tasmanian Aboriginal language.

This is an easy walk for families, with panoramic views of the Derwent River throughout the length of the walk.

4. Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery

Free Exhibitions related to Tasmanian Aboriginal history and culture Hobart CBD

The Tasmanian Aboriginal galleries within the Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery were made with and by Tasmanian Aboriginal community and curators.

There are two permanent Aboriginal exhibitions as well as regular temporary exhibitions featuring work of Tasmanian Aboriginal artists. The TMAG children's gallery also features Tasmanian Aboriginal language and cultural content.

ningina tunapri, TMAG's Tasmanian Aboriginal culture gallery will provide you with a rich, enlightening and inspiring experience. The exhibition explores the journey of Tasmanian Aboriginal people and is a celebration of all Tasmanian Aboriginal generations.

Our land: parrawa parrawa! Go Away! is an immersive exhibition that tells the story of Aboriginal people and colonists following the invasion of lutruwita, now called Tasmania, focusing on the Black War.

mapiya lumi / Around Here is TMAG's long-term exhibition for children 0-7 years. This gallery has 7 palawa kani words for children to find throughout the gallery and a video instillation sharing the Creation Story of muyini the star spirit based on Wurati's stories told to George Augustus Robinson in 1830.
